

1878

Norfolk Va ^{Oct. 7th}
~~Sept 7~~

Mr. W B Dumbley.

Onancock, Acc. D. Dear Sir yours of The 30th ultimo did not come to hand until yesterday and in answer to your first interrogatory I never knew of any contract marriage or otherwise between Mr. J. R. Joyner & his de-wife Nancy B. The only thing I ever knew between them was the will I wrote as any other will which was of no effect, the wills of Mr. & Mrs Joyner were both made and signed at the same time, and the property to be given or intended to be given by said will was Mrs. Joyner interest in the J. F. Ames' land, at the death of Mrs Joyner's son Oswald W Ames who died I think on the 7th day of