Ans'd Jan'y. 1883.

Mr. W. B. Lumbly -

Dear Sir -

Since

writing for Mrs. Voss has discovered my bond among some of the old papers of her husband, I have bought it for $100. and she has assigned it to John Commons 106 Murray St, who will hold it for the money to pay Mrs. Voss. when he will assign it over to you. You can send your check for the 220 $ to any party in my name who will pay it over to Commons and receive the bond assigned to you. The assignment mentions and carries the mortg. Mrs. Voss is the administratrix of her husband's estate -
